Index

A

age
- care workers 7, 24, 27-8, 29
- children of care workers 29-30, 37
- entering care work 30, 31, 36, 60
- leavers 158, 159
- allegations against carers 109, 126, 140-1
- Antze, P. 84
- army 54-5
- Audit Commission 153

B

Bernstein, B. 96
- biographical interviews 15-16, 17, 19-22, 36, 213-14
- case selection 22-3, 24
- work–family issues 186-201, 202
- boundaries 106-9, 126

C

Cameron, C. 104
- care
- types of knowledge 115-24, 126-7
- understandings 103-15, 125-6, 162-3, 208-10
- care ethic see ethic of care
- care workers 1-2
- careers and identities 77-102, 207-8
- characteristics 26-36
- childhood 40, 41-2
- childhood origins of ethic of care 55-7, 206
- demand and supply 3
- development 4-5
- entering care work 59-76, 206-7
- ethic of care 39, 42-55
- experiences of care work 129-51, 210
- in independent sector 5
- leavers, movers and stayers 153-75
- policy implications 215-21
- recruitment and retention 3-4, 211
- research design and methods 6-7, 16-26
- research questions 15-16, 205-6
- similarities and differences 7-9
- theoretical frameworks 10-12
- understandings of care 103-28, 208-10
- work–family issues 6, 177-203, 211-12
- see also community childminders;
- family support workers;
- foster carers;
- residential social workers
- careers 4-5, 10, 77-9, 98-102, 174, 207-8, 220
- career orientation 80-3
- case studies 85-98
- and flexibility 171
- leavers 160, 161, 162
- theoretical frameworks 83-5
- case selection 22-3, 24, 227-32
- challenge 138-40
- change 105-6, 125, 208
- through education 106, 114-15
- childcare workers see care workers
- childhood
- and ethic of care 39-41, 42-57, 206
- policy implications 216
- stories 41-2
- understandings of 103-4, 127-8
- childminders see community
- childminders
- children
- of care workers 29-30, 37
- see also vulnerable children
- children’s homes
- and family life 111
- government policy 104, 107
- independent sector 5
- see also residential social workers
- children’s workforce 1-2
- flexibility 168-73
- see also care workers
- Children’s Workforce Development Council 2, 154
- Children’s Workforce Strategy 1-2, 154, 175, 217
- Commission for Social Care Inspection 1
- commitment 54-5, 70-1, 149, 202-3, 210
- Community Alternative Placement Schemes 80
- Community Care 153
- community childminders 2, 6-7
- age 28
- age entering care work 30, 31, 36
- careers 5, 79, 80-1, 82, 83
- case studies 22, 24, 25, 228-30
- childhood 41, 42
- controlling working hours 197, 199
- dimensions of work 8, 9
- educational level 34, 35
- effects of family life on care work 184-5

Unauthenticated | Downloaded 09/13/23 05:59 PM UTC
Coming to care

effects of work on family life 6, 181, 182, 183
entering care work 60, 61, 68, 71-2
ethic of care 42-3, 44
equality 27
experiences of care work 129-30, 150, 210
flexibility 169, 171, 172
gender 27
household composition 28, 29
household income 31, 32
intrinsic rewards 136-7, 139-40
leavers 154, 155, 156, 157, 159, 161, 166, 172
managing work–family boundaries 16, 181, 186, 188, 189-90, 192, 193-4, 195
other paid work 33
parenting status 29, 30, 60
Postal Survey 17, 18, 19
recruitment and retention 4, 165-6
satisfaction and dissatisfaction 132-3, 134, 136, 143-6
types of knowledge 115, 117-19, 127
understandings of care 105-6, 110, 112, 208
unhappy childhoods 51-4 compensation 105-6, 125, 208 corporate parenting 119, 120-1, 140

D
Department of Health 129 dissatisfaction 149-51, 210 external constraints 140-2
leavers 159-60, 161, 162
low pay and status 142-3

E
education (children) 106, 114-15, 125, 126 educational level (care workers) 33-6, 37, 78, 81 see also qualifications Elder, G. 10, 79
employment status 7, 16
entering care work 59-60, 74-6, 206-7 lifecourse phase 60-5
significant life events 65-8 suggestions of others 71-4 work-related events and context 68-71
ethic of care 10-12, 75-6, 103, 163
and career 89, 92
childhood origins 39-41, 42-57, 206
ethnicity 22, 24, 26-7
and household composition 28
Every Child Matters 1, 8, 168 external conditions 149, 150, 151 constraints 140-2
low pay and status 142-3

F
family-friendly policies and practice 166, 197, 211-12
care workers’ views 182-3, 184 managers’ views 179-81, 185-6
policy implications 220-1
family life
integrating looked-after children 192-4 normal 106, 109-12, 125, 137-8 see also work–family issues
family support workers 2, 6-7
age 28
age entering care work 30, 31, 36
careers 78, 79, 82
case studies 24, 25, 231-2
controlling working hours 180, 197, 199
dimensions of work 8, 9
educational level 34, 35
effects of family life on care work 184-5
effects of work on family life 181, 182, 183, 184
entering care work 60, 61-3, 64, 67, 69, 72-3
ethic of care 44-6, 47-8
ethnicity 27
experiences of care work 129-30, 150, 210
external conditions 141, 142
flexibility 170, 171, 172
gender 27
household composition 29
household income 32
intrinsic rewards 137, 139
leavers 156, 157, 159, 161, 164, 172, 174
managing work–family boundaries 186, 187-8, 189, 191-2, 195
motherhood 48
other paid work 33
parenting status 29, 30
Postal Survey 17, 18
recruitment and retention 165
satisfaction and dissatisfaction 133, 135, 136, 143-4, 147-8
support 220
types of knowledge 115, 121-4, 127
understandings of care 106, 107, 112-13, 208
Finch, J. 11
flexibility
Index

workforce 168-74
working hours 197-200
foster carers 2, 6-7, 36
age 27, 28
age entering care work 30, 31, 36, 60
career development and identity
construction 5, 79, 80, 82, 83, 92-8, 99-101
case studies 22-3, 24, 25, 215, 227-8
dimensions of work 7-8, 9
educational level 33-4, 35
effects of family life on care work 184-5
effects of work on family life 6, 181-2, 183, 184
employment status 16
entering care work 60, 61, 63, 65, 66-7, 70-1, 73-4
ethnicity 26-7
experiences of care work 129, 130, 131, 136
external conditions 140-1
flexibility 169, 170, 173
gender 27
household composition 28, 29
household income 31, 32
independent sector 5
intrinsic rewards 137, 139
leavers 153, 155, 156, 157-8, 161, 163, 166, 172
managing work–family boundaries 180-1, 186, 188, 190-1, 192-3, 194, 203, 212
other paid work 31, 33, 37
parenting status 29, 30
Postal Survey 18
recruitment and retention 3, 165, 167
remuneration 130, 131
satisfaction and dissatisfaction 133-5, 143-4
types of knowledge 115, 117, 127
understandings of care 105-6, 107, 108, 109, 110, 114-15, 125-6, 208, 209
unhappy childhoods 49-51
frustration see dissatisfaction functional knowledge 116-17, 119-21, 123, 126-7, 128, 209

G
gender
care workers 22, 24, 26, 27
career development and identity
construction 84, 101-2
entering care work 74-5
see also men; women

H
Hollway, W. 20
home-based care workers 6-7, 16
careers 78
educational level 34
entering care work 61
experiences of care work 134, 150, 210
household income 30
managing work–family boundaries 186
recruitment and retention 167, 217-18
support 220
understandings of care 105-6
work–family issues 6, 180-1, 183, 202 see also community childminders; foster carers household composition 28-9, 36-7 and household income 31, 32
household income 30-1, 32, 37
see also pay

I
identity 10, 84-5, 98-102, 207-8
case studies 85-98
income see household income independent fostering agencies 5, 133-4, 220
independent sector 5
institutional care workers 6, 16
educational level 34
experiences of care work 150
leavers 155
managing work–family boundaries 186, 191-2
understandings of care 105-6 see also family support workers; residential social workers interviews
biographical 17, 19-22, 36
managers 17, 25-6, 36
intrinsic rewards 149, 151, 168
challenge and competence 138-40
making a difference 136-8

J
Jefferson, T. 20

K
knowledge 116-17, 126-7, 128, 209-10 functional 119-21
professional 121-4
tacit 117-19

245

Unauthenticated | Downloaded 09/13/23 05:59 PM UTC
Coming to care

L
leavers 153-4, 157-8, 173-4, 211
age 158-9
case studies 162-3
destinations 159
flexibility within childcare work 171, 172 intentions over time 163-5 methodological issues 214 reasons for leaving 159-61 who thought they would stay 161-2
work–family issues 179-80, 182
workers' intentions 155-6 life events 60, 65-8
lifecourse 7, 10
and career 78-9, 83-4, 85, 92, 100-1 entering work 60-5, 206-7, 216, 220
leavers 160
research design and methods 15-16
workforce flexibility 174 lone parents 22, 28, 29, 36-7, 61 looked-after children education 114-15, 126
integrating into family life 192-4 managing boundaries 107-9
see also foster carers; residential social workers

M
making a difference 136-8
managers
interviews 17, 25-6, 36, 226
recruitment and retention strategies 165-6
work–family issues 179-81, 201, 202, 211-12, 220
workforce flexibility 168-9
Mason, J. 11
memory 84
men
career development and identity
construction 84, 86-9, 101-2, 208
entering care work 69-70, 75, 207 minority ethnic groups see ethnicity
motherhood 48
and entering care work 62-5, 75
multi-agency training 124

N
National Minimum Standards for Children's Homes 104, 107 night working 198
nursery nurses 3-4
NVQs 33, 34, 35, 36, 81, 105, 116, 200 offloading 194-7
other paid work 31, 33, 37

O

P
parenting, tacit knowledge 117-19
parenting status 22, 24, 29-30, 37
entering care work 60
partners 23
offloading to 194-7
pay 7, 130, 131-2, 142, 219
leavers 155
recruitment and retention 167, 168
pedagogy 105
physical contact 111
Postal Survey 17-19, 36, 213, 215, 223-5 care workers' characteristics 26-36
leavers 155-6, 173, 214
work–family issues 181-6, 201
professional knowledge 116-17, 121-4, 126-7, 128, 209-10

Q
qualifications 33-6, 77-8, 105 and career development 81, 86, 87-8 studying for 200-1, 202
types of knowledge 115-17, 209-10
Qualitative Comparative Analysis (QCA) 81-3

R
Ragin, Charles 81
recruitment and retention 3, 153-4, 173-5, 211
foster carers 7
managers' perspective 165-6
policy implications 218
and work–family issues 6 workers' perspectives 166-8 see also entering care work; leavers relationships 106, 112-14, 126, 209 remuneration see pay
research design and methods 16-17, 36, 212-15
biographical interviews 19-22
case selection 22-3, 24, 227-32 manager interviews 25-6, 226
Postal Survey 17-19, 223-5
Telephone Survey 23-5
research questions 15-16
residential social workers 2, 3, 6-7
age 27, 28
age entering care work 30, 31, 36
career development and identity
construction 78, 79, 82, 83, 86-92, 99, 100
case studies 24, 25, 230-1 childhood stories 41-2
controlling working hours 197-8, 199-200
dimensions of work 8, 9
educational level 34, 35-6
effects of family life on care work 184-5
effects of work on family life 181, 182, 183, 184
entering care work 60, 64-6, 69-70
ethnicity 27
experiences of care work 129, 130-1, 132, 136, 210
external conditions 140-2 fitting in studies 200-1 flexibility 169, 170-1, 172-3
gender 27
household composition 28, 29
household income 32
intrinsic rewards 137-8, 139
leavers 153-4, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160-1, 162, 166, 167, 172
managing work–family boundaries 6, 179-80, 186, 187, 191, 193, 194-7
motherhood 48
other paid work 31
parenting status 29, 30, 60
Postal Survey 18
recruitment and retention 165, 168
satisfaction and dissatisfaction 133, 135-6, 143-4
types of knowledge 115, 119-21, 127
understandings of care 106, 107-8, 110-11, 114, 208 retention see recruitment and retention Ricoeur, P. 85
Rose, M. 77
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 103-4

S
satisfaction 129, 132-6, 149-51, 210
challenge and competence 138-40
continuum 143-8
making a difference 136-8
semi-structured interviews 19-21
significant life events 60, 65-8 social care workforce 1, 33
see also care workers
social pedagogy 104, 218 Social Services Inspectorate 3 social workers 3, 30
see also residential social workers sponsored childminders see community childminders

T
Tacit knowledge 116-19, 123, 126-7, 128, 209, 219
Telephone Survey 17, 23-5, 36, 213, 215
leavers 157-62, 163-5, 173, 214
training 35-6, 81, 83, 115-17, 209-10
foster carers 94, 97-8
multi-agency 124
policy implications 218-19
Tronto, Joan 10-11, 40, 56, 103, 163 trust 112-13, 209

U
unhappy childhood 48-54, 56-7, 110

V
vulnerable children 1, 2
care workers’ identification with 48-54, 56-7 see also looked-after children

W
women
care workers 1, 3, 26, 27, 44, 104-5 career development and identity construction 79, 89-98, 101-2, 207-8 childminders 7
educational level 33
employment 221
entering care work 61-9, 71-4, 75, 207
recruitment and retention 216, 217
work–family issues 6, 7, 150, 177-8, 201-3, 206, 211-12
effects of family life on care work 184-6
effects of work on family life 181-4
family-friendly policies and practice 220-1
leavers 155
managers’ views 179-81
managing boundaries 186-201
methodological issues 214-15
work-related events 60, 68-71
workforce flexibility 168-9, 174 preference for working with particular groups 169-71 within childcare work 171-3
working hours 135-6, 182, 197-9