A
Abbott, Andrew 46
abductive reasoning 53n abuse see male violence accountability: negative effects 5-6, 8 action and individual 19-20 activity routes in caring 22 advocacy 224-5 agency and biographical methods in health care 169-70 and structure 24
AIDS see HIV/AIDS
Aldrich, H.E. 74, 75
Alheit, Peter 24-5, 28, 60-1 alienation effect 31
Almaliach, D. 109
Althusser, L. 275
analysis
case study analysis 32n levels 2
cross-level analysis 8-9
in-depth 140
sequential analysis 44-5, 52-3n
see also biographical interpretive method; textual analysis Andrews, Molly 195-6, 199
anorexia nervosa 212-13
Anthias, Floya 42-3
anxiety
general practitioners 300, 301, 303-4
role in male violence 152, 159 Apitzsch, Ursula 61
appropriation systems 24-5 Arendt, Hannah 19-20
arts-based approaches 27 Atkinson, Dorothy 225-6 audit culture 5-6, 8, 27
auto/biographical methods 302-3
and male subjectivity 158 autonomous choice: state repression 132-9 autopoiesis 24-5, 61

B
Bakhtin, Mikhail 129n
Bakhtine, M. 280n
‘balancing position’ in Russian jobs 118
Balint, Michael 169, 301
Balint groups 301
Balzer, H. 115
Bar-On, D. 106, 188
Barnes, C. 232n
Barthes, R. 280n
Bateson, Gregory 93-4, 98-9 bathing: ‘social bath’ 214
Bauman, Zygmunt 19
Begin, Menachem 106
behaviourist view of entrepreneurs 74-5 Bhabha, Homi 195
biographical co-construction 11
biographical embeddedness 57-68
biographical interpretive method 2, 32n lone mothers in Venice 239-49
needs of homeless men 251-61
and race and ethnicity 208 social subject in 93-9
biographical methods
auto/biographical methods 302-3 effective applications 6-7 range of 2
skills and training 29-31
user groups 6
see institutional cultures
biographical resources 9
education and training 11-12, 59, 61-3, 64, 67, 68
see therapy
biographical work: use of term 32n biographicity 24, 25, 28, 60-1 biological terms 24
Bion, Wilfred 96-7
body
racialised identity 206-7
and resistance 209-17
Bolton, G. 30
Bonacich, E. 41
Boothe, Brigitte 253
Bordo, S. 215
Bornat, Joanna 168, 169, 170, 224 bottom-up practice 228
bottom-up research 223, 225-6, 229-31
Bourdieu, Pierre 58
Brain, J. 210-11
Britain
openness to biographical methods 20
policy on domestic violence 149-60 Polish community interviews 197-200 professionalism in 3, 4-7
training in biographical methods 29
Bude, Heinz 52n
Bury, Michael 166
Butler, R. 6

C

Caisse Nationale d’Allocations Familiales 27-8 ‘canonical’ identity work 138-9 capital 58-9, 80
careers concept 239
caring ‘Cultures of Care’ project 21-2, 24
need for biographical work 22 Carpenter, Belinda 169
case study analysis 32n
Cavarero, A. 31
Chamberlayne, P. 193
‘Cultures of Care’ project 21-2, 24
SOSTRIS project 22-3, 24, 27, 232n
Charauudeau, P. 280n
Chicago school of sociology 2, 46
Chinese entrepreneurs 76 citizen advocacy 225
citizenship 3, 19
denizen status 47, 51-2
German citizenship laws 313, 316-17 immigrants to Greece 87
civil servants 115
class resources 58, 59
cognitive-behavioural programmes for violent men 150-1
collective group analysis 188-9
workshop experience 31
collective memory: Holocaust survivors 101-2, 106 Collier, R. 151
commissioned care management 5 communication systems in Russia 117 community-based teaching in New Zealand 12, 285-94 conditional translation 194, 196-7, 200 ‘confined’ identity work 137-8 continental welfare model 41 continuing care in NHS 228-31
Cooper, A. 5-6, 196
Cooper, Mabel 225-6, 227, 228
coping strategies
life-course regime East Germany 135-9 new entrepreneurs 48-9, 64-6, 68 Courtney, Sean 305
creativity 93, 97-8
crime: narratives of fear 25-6 cross-language research: translation issues 193-200
cross-level analysis 8-9
cultural capital 159
cultural imperialism of English language 194-5 cultural psychology of learning and health 299-310 culture of dependency 242 ‘culture of guilt’ 26
‘Cultures of Care’ project 21-2, 24
Curran, Chris 26

D

Dartington, T. 6
databases: health biographies 172-3 Dausien, B. 24-5, 28
Deacon, Joey 225
defence mechanisms 26
defended subjects
and anorexia nervosa 213
and male violence 152-8
see Hollway, Wendy Delcroix, Catherine 328n
denizen status 47, 51-2
Denmark: TSER project 57-8, 77-88
Denzin, Norman K. 240, 259 dependency cultures 242
dialogic relationship in Dostoevsky 129n différence: foreign students in Germany 319-20 disability research: biographical methods 232n ‘discursive’ identity work 136
disempowerment trajectories 11 ‘disenchantment’ 136
disguised access 244
doctors
biographical resources in training 12
cultural psychology of learning 299-310
domestic violence see male violence Dostoevsky, Fyodor 129n dreaming 97-8
Dubet, F 278
Duluth domestic violence model 149, 150
Durkheim, Emile 85
E

East Germany

caring cultures 22
managers 10, 131-45
state control of life-course decisions 132-9, 142-3 transformation research 140-4
research on 140-4, 195-6
economic necessity 143
‘economic redundancy’ 39, 47
Edgerton, Robert 224-5
education and training 29-31
biographical resources 11-12, 59, 61-3, 64, 67, 68
community-based research in New Zealand 285-94
foreign students in Germany 313-28 ‘foreigners’ education’ in Germany 314, 315-16
health training in biographical methods 173-4
self-directed learning for GPs 299-300
state control of 132-3
see also teachers
ego: monolithic representation 102 Elwert, Georg 52n
embeddedness see biographical embeddedness; mixed embeddedness embodied resistance 209-17 emotional distancing 26
emotionality 9-10, 93, 95-6, 97 empowerment 2, 5
biography as empowering practice 221-33
disempowerment trajectories 11
user as consumer 7, 8
English language: cultural imperialism 194-5 entrepreneurial capacity 57, 58-9
entrepreneurship
research limitations 73-4
self-employment of migrants 39-68
biographical embeddedness 57-68
coping strategies 48-9, 64-6, 68
and gender 9, 40, 42-53, 65-7, 82-7
as innovation 73-88
self-employment schemes 57-8 epiphany 207
Erikson, E. 6
Esping-Andersen, G. 41
ethics of interviewing 10-11, 181-9, 291-2 textual analysis reveals more than narrator intended 152, 185, 186-8 ‘ethnic economies’ 39, 40-3 definition 42
resources for ethnic business 58-9
women’s role 42-3, 52
ethnic minorities
entrepreneurship 9, 39-88
healthcare and race 205-17 students in Germany 12, 313-28
see also migrants; race ethnic networks 76
‘ethnic succession’ theory 76 Europe
biographical methods and social policy 19-34 female self-employment study 43-52 evidence-based systems 5 conflict with biographical methods 25, 170 domestic violence policy 149, 150 experience: as entrepreneurial resource 60-1

F

family cultures 242
fear
fear of crime narratives 25-6
fear of dying defence mechanisms 26 feminine welfare subsystem 237-49 feminism
agency and prostitutes’ biographies 169-70 domestic violence 149-60
object relations theory 305-6 ‘fictional-critical writing’ 30-1 Fine, Michelle 302-3
Finerman, Ruthbeth 168
France
biography in institutional context 27-8 formal and informal social sphere 20
teachers’ professional identity 11-12, 265-81
training in biographical methods 29
Fraser, Nancy 237-9
Free Association Narrative Interview Method 152 freelance professional practice 9
French, R. 6
Freud, Sigmund 63, 93, 97, 98, 309
Froggett, L. 3, 5
Biographical methods and professional practice

G

Garfinkel, H. 140
Gartner, William 73
gender
and identity 11
in psychotherapy 303
self-employment of migrant women 9, 40, 42-53, 65-7, 82-7 subjectivity and male violence 151, 152-8 welfare dualism 237-8
general practitioners: cultural psychology of learning 299-310 generation agendas 144
Genette, G. 280n
genocide: psychoanalytical conceptualisation 102 Germany
biography in institutional context 28
caring cultures 22
hermeneutics 20
homeless men interviews 251-61 institutional contexts 26
migrants
citizenship constraints 313, 316-17 discourse on migration experience 321-4 educational achievement 314, 315-16
self-employment 39-53, 57-68
and structural opportunity model 76-7 as university students 12, 313-28
professionalism in 3-4, 7-8
training in biographical methods 29
see also East Germany; Holocaust survivors gerontology 6, 24
ghost writers 193-200
Giddens, A. 25, 98
Gilbert, G.M. 111n
Glade, William B. 75
Godard, Barbara 194
Goffman, Erving 33n, 141, 239, 241, 247, 323
Gonzalez, L. 167
GPs: cultural psychology of learning 299-310
Granovetter, M. 40-1
Greenhalgh, Tricia 169
grounded theory 44, 62
group analysis 188-9
workshop experience 31
Gubrium, J. 6
guilt
culture of 26
East German insulation 138
Holocaust survivors 104
Gunaratnam, Y. 6

H

Hammersley, M. 222
Hanses, A. 24, 25, 28
Haraway, Donna 320
healthcare
cultural psychology of learning 299-310
empowerment through biographical methods 221-33
health studies 165-75
applications of biographical methods 166-8 databases 172-3
difficulties of using biographical methods 169-70 interdisciplinary dialogue 170-1 therapeutic interventions 171-2
training in biographical methods 173-4
and race 205-8, 211-17
Hearn, Jeff 151, 157
Hegel, G.W.F. 63
Helling, I. 189n
hermeneutics 2, 20
heuristic concepts in transformation research 142-4 Hillmann, F. 51
HIV/AIDS: biographical methods 165, 167, 168, 171
Hoerning, Erika 60
Hogarth, S. 165
Hollway, Wendy 25, 152, 157, 158-9, 216
fear of crime narratives 25-6
Holmes, Jeremy 309
Holocaust 10, 32n
Holocaust survivors 101-11
control group studies 104-5 criteria for first generation survivors 106 emotional survivors 103-4 fuzzy boundaries for second and third generation survivors 106 legal definitions 103, 104 scales of suffering 107-10, 307 home-based caring 21-2 homelessness 11
biographical acuity of homeless 23–4
needs of homeless men 251–61
professionals’ defence mechanisms 26–7 training of workers 29
Honneth, Axel 63
Hughes, Everett C. 3, 46, 48
human capital 58, 80
Hunter, K.M. 169
Hurwitz, Brian 169

I

identity
empowerment through biographical methods 228
identity work with East German managers 135–9 ‘Me-Images’ of foreign students 318–19
sexual identity and professional practice 303–4 teachers’ professional identity in France 11–12, 265–81 see also gender
illegal migrants 52n
immigrant communities see migrants; Polish community in Britain indescribability 102
individual see subjectivity innovative ethnic entrepreneurship 73–88 institutional cultures: biographical methods 26–8 ‘insulation’ 137–8
intercultural interaction in Germany 316, 326 interpretation
revealing more than narrator intended 152, 185, 186–8
see also biographical interpretive method; needs interpretation; textual analysis ‘interpretive biographies’ 240 see also biographical interpretive method interpreters see translation intersubjectivity 3, 4, 10, 25
intertextuality 302
interviews
ethical aspects 10–11, 181–9, 291–2
revealing more than narrator intended 152, 185, 186–8
narrative work

homeless men 251–61
open narrative interviews 32n research students’ experiences 291–3 translation issues 197–200
Israel: Holocaust survivors 101–11

J

Jackson, David 158
Jefferson, T. 25, 152, 157, 158–9, 159–60, 216
fear of crime narratives 25–6
Jews
as entrepreneurs 76
Holocaust survivors 101–11
Johnson, M. 276
journals 285, 290–3
‘just world’ hypothesis 108

K

Katko, Tamar 103–4, 108, 109
Kerbrat-Orecchioni, C. 280n
Keren, N. 109
Killick, John 166
King, A.: ‘Cultures of Care’ project 21–2, 24
Kivinen 115
Klein, Melanie 152, 157
Kloosterman, R. 41–2
Knowles, C. 207
‘known past’ 126, 128
Kolchar, 111n
Kosovo: war trauma counsellors 93, 95–6
Kupferberg, F. 77–8

L

Labour governments 5
see also New Labour Lakoff, G. 276
language
analysis of life histories 272–7 inadequacy for Holocaust survivors 102
translation issues 193–200
Lauret, Maria 194–5
learning disability: biographical methods 224, 225–6 Lejeune, P. 267, 280n less-demanded knowledge 152, 157–8 Levinas, Emmanuel 102, 319
Lewis, G. 6
Biographical methods and professional practice

life histories 2, 5, 6, 7
community-based research in New Zealand 288-90 effect of health practitioners 166, 230, 303-9 interview ethics 181-9, 291-2 research students’ experience of 291-3
teachers’ professional identity 265-81
see also narrative work life-course regime in East Germany 132-9, 142-3
coping strategies 135-9
Light, I. 58-9
Lincoln, Y.S. 259
lone mothers 32n
in Venice 11, 237-49
Lorenz, Walter 20
Lupton, Deborah 167
Lyth, Menzies 26

M
macro-sociological reasoning 140 McWhinney, I. 300-1
male violence 10, 149-60 cognitive-behavioural programmes 150-1
defended subjects 152-60
in immigrant stories 209
management
East German managers 10, 131-45 managerial styles in Russia 116, 117, 120-1, 124-5 managerialism 4, 5
marginalised groups
biographical methods 23-4, 33n
general practitioners 299, 303-9
lone mothers in Venice 242, 244, 245, 246-7, 248
see also migrants
Marks, L. 165
Martinez, M.A. 74
masculine welfare subsystem 237, 238 masculinity
in doctor’s work 307, 309-10
in psychosocial biography of violence 151, 152-60 masked needs 243-4
‘masking’ 138-9
Maurer-Hein, R. 28, 29
‘Me-Images’ of foreign students 318-19
Mead, George Herbert 63, 318 meaning structures 241
medical culture 300-1
memory
collective memory of Holocaust survivors 101-2, 106
screen memory 137
Mental Deficiency Act (1913) 226, 227
Mental Deficiency Committee records 226-7 Merton, Robert 81, 82, 87
Meshcherinka, Elena 129n Messerschmidt, James 151, 157 metaphor 276-7
migrants
foreign students in Germany 313-28
educational achievement 314, 315-16
migration discourse 321-4 in healthcare context in Britain 208-17
illegal migrants 52n
self-employment 39-53, 57-68
biographical embeddedness 57-68
entrepreneurship as innovation 73-88 motivation for 75, 76, 78-80, 84-7 of women 9, 40, 42-53, 65-7, 82-7 Mills, C. Wright 23
minorities see ethnic minorities; women ‘mixed embeddedness’ 40-3 Monde, Le 20, 268
Monk, Gerald 172
monolithic representation of the ego 102 moral careers: lone mothers in Venice 239-47 ‘moral degeneracy’ 226-7 moral rethinking 87
Morokvasic, Mirjana 43, 51
motivation
for ethnic entrepreneurship 75, 76, 78-80, 84-7
social recognition 63, 65-6, 67-8, 79
unlived lives 36, 61, 62, 64-5, 67-8
job motivation in Russia 117, 122-3, 125-6 as migrant resource 61-8 Murard, N. 25-6

N
narrative 2, 131
ethics of interviews 181-9, 291-2 for GPs’ mental wellbeing 309 interviews with homeless men 253-5 marginalised groups 24
narrative biographical 179
narratology 265
subjective constructions 25-6 therapeutic effects 171-2, 183, 309
see also biographical methods; life histories National Practitioners’ Network 149
see also RESPECT
National Service Framework for Older People 29
National Sound Archive: health studies 166, 171 Nazis
perpetrators of Holocaust 109-10 psychiatric diagnoses 111n needs interpretation
homeless men 251-61
lone mothers in Venice 239-49
neo-American welfare model 41 neoliberalism 4, 5, 8 Neuberger, J. 207
neurolinguistic programming (NLP) 274
New Labour
policy on domestic violence 149-60
policy on homelessness 27
new professionalism 9, 50
New Zealand: community-based teaching 12, 285-94 Nittel, Dieter 3
normal mothers 242-3, 244, 245, 246 nurses: cooperation with biographical project 229-31

object relations theory 305-6 Oevermann, Ulrich 3, 4, 46, 48, 52-3n, 320-1 older people
biographical methods in continuing care 228-31
oral histories 24
and health care 166-7, 168, 171 psychology of old age 6 ‘social bath’ 214
ontology of human subject 96-7, 285, 287
open narrative interviewing 32n opportunity structures 9 entrepreneurship model 74-7, 86, 88 oral history tradition 2, 5, 6, 7, 24 health applications 166-7, 168, 171, 172-3 organisational structures: Russian transformation 115-29 outward-oriented caring 21, 22

P
participation 2, 5, 6
Patai, Daphne 223
Pauling, Brian 294
Peace, S. 223
Peirce, C.S. 53n
Pence, Ellen 149
person-centred social work 26, 27 personal fate 144
personal support for carers 22
Plummer, Ken 288, 291
Polanyi, Karl 40
Polish community in Britain 197-200 political correctness 6 Popay, Jenny 168
postmodernism 166
post-traumatic stress disorder 106 power relations
disempowerment trajectories 11
in health care 165
life-course regime in East Germany 132-9, 142-3 in public and private sector employment in Russia 117, 119-20, 121-2, 124-5 ‘social bath’ 214
pre-client careers of lone mothers in Venice 241-3, 247-8 precarious work: migrant self-employment 41-2 private sector employment in Britain 115
in Russia 115-29
private sphere see public/private spheres processing people 133, 139-40 professionalism/professional practice 1-8, 46-7 in Britain 3, 4-7
challenges to 7, 8
characteristics 320-1
defence mechanisms 26-7
in Germany 3-4, 7-8
identity of teachers in France 11-12, 265-81
new professionalism 9, 50
professional histories 166 self-awareness 10-11
and sexual identity 303-4
skills and training 29-31
Biographical methods and professional practice

state control
  in East Germany 132-45
  in Russia 115-16, 123-5, 127-8
Prosser, J. 213
prostitution: biographical methods 165, 167, 169 ‘protective touch’ 214-15
‘proximity’: French interpretation 20 Prussian bureaucrats 128-9 psychoanalytical approaches Balint groups 301
  feminist psychoanalysis 305-6 Holocaust survivors and suffering 101-11 trauma and emotionality 93-9 violent men as defended subjects 152-60 psychodynamic approaches 2, 5-6, 25, 26 Holocaust survivors 103-7
psychology
  cultural psychology of learning and health 299-310 of old age 6
public sector employment in France 115
  in Russia 115-29
public/private spheres: caring 21-2

Q
qualifying needs 245

R
race and healthcare practices 205-17
  and identity 11
  see also ethnic minorities racism 209-10, 318
Randall, J. 232n
Rath, J. 41-2
reconstructive social pedagogy 26 ‘redemptive heroism’ 108-9 regulatory culture 5-6, 8, 27 relational settings 12
resistance: embodied resistance 209-17 RESPECT 149
Rhineland welfare model 41
Ricoeur, P. 267
Riemann, Gerhard 3, 328n risk
  aversion of ethnic entrepreneurs 82-4 and biographical method in health 167 risk society: SOSTRIS project 22-3 Roer, D 28, 29
Rosenberg, H. 123, 128-9n
Rosenthal, G. 183, 188
Royal Commission on Long-Term Care 232n
Russia: public and private sector employment 10, 115-29
Rustin, M. 25

S
Sabras 108-9
Salamon, Alice 20
Sassen, S. 41
Schumpeter, Joseph 74
Schütze, Fritz 3-4, 61, 145n, 320, 326
screen memory 137
Sedgwick, Charles 294
Selah, O. 106
self-advocacy 225
self-awareness of professionals 10-11
self-directed learning for GPs 299-300
self-employment of migrants 39-53
  biographical embeddedness 57-68
  entrepreneurship 73-88
  and gender 9, 40, 42-53, 65-7, 82-7
  resources for 58-68
SEM project see self-employment of migrants semantic codes 143
separate spheres 21-2
sequential analysis 44-5, 52-3n
service users
  as consumers 7
  participation 2, 5, 6
sexual identity 303-4
shared cultures in caring 22
Shipman, Harold 299
Simon, Sherry 196
Simpson, P. 6
situated knowledge 320
skills see education and training Smith, Graham 168, 169
social assistance careers of lone mothers in Venice 241 social background: life-course regime in East Germany 144 ‘social bath’ 214
social capital 58-9, 60, 80
social change see social transformation; transformation research social citizenship 51-2 social difference 205, 216
social exclusion
and biographical methods 23, 26-7 health inequalities 168
see also marginalised groups; SOSTRIS project social interactionism 26, 33n social pedagogy 20
social policy: European comparative review 19-34
social recognition
as motive for migrant entrepreneurs 63, 65-6, 67-8, 79
in Soviet professions 116
social strategy 98
social subject 93-9
social transformation 2, 10 coping with risk society 23 social workers
biographical constructions of lone mothers in Venice 237-49
needs of homeless men 251-61
skills and training 29
see also professional practice
'sociopoiesis' 24-5
somatic experiences 205, 213, 216
Somers, Margaret 168, 285, 286
SOSTRIS project 22-3, 24, 27, 232n
workshop experience 31
Sowell, T. 76
Spanò, A. 28
Spivak, Gayatri 193, 195, 196, 199
Stanley, Jo 172
Stanley, Liz 194, 302
state control of professional life
East Germany 132-45
Russia 115-16, 123-5, 127-8
Steedman, Carolyn 31
Steinert, Heinz 52n
structural hermeneutics 2
'structural opportunity model' 74-6, 86, 88 German migrants 76-7
structural text analysis 182, 186-8 structuration theory 98 structure and agency 24 subjectivity 9-10
and male violence 151, 152-8
in social theory 19-20, 23-6 see also intersubjectivity; ontology of human subject; psychodynamic approaches 'surplus population' 39 ‘suspension of belief’ 10, 142 syllogism 53n
symbolic interactionism 2, 46 systems of power see power relations systems theory 24, 33n

T
teachers
professional identity in France 11-12, 265-81 research journals 285
textual analysis
ethics of revealing more than narrator intended 152, 185, 186-8 life story narratives 267-8, 270-7 mediated biographies 240
textuality 118, 129n
therapy: narrative work as 171-2, 183, 309
Thompson, P 167, 224
Thomsen, M.N. 77-8
Thomson, Al 173
To Reflect and Trust group 109-10 top-down practice 226-8 top-down research 222-3, 224-5, 229 touch in healthcare 214-15 training see education and training trajectories control of 61
disempowerment trajectories 11
see turning points
transformation economies see East Germany; Russia transformation research 140-5 translation 193-200
politics of 193, 194-7
trauma 63, 95-6, 97, 98, 102
see also Holocaust survivors TSER project see self-employment of migrants; SEM and SOSTRIS projects turning points 241
see epiphany
Twigg, J. 214

U
undiscussability 102
unemployment: self-employment schemes 57-8 universal translation 194 universities: foreign students in Germany 12, 313-28 ‘unknown future’ 126, 128
unlived lives 9, 24
as motivation for self-employment 36, 61, 62, 64-5, 67-8
user participation 2, 5, 6

V ‘vacancy-chain businesses’ 41-2
Velvet Revolution 134, 135 Venice: biographical methods and lone mothers 11, 237-49
violent men see male violence Vöbruba, Georg 28
vocational cultures 143 voluntary sector in New Zealand 286, 288-9

W
Waldinger, R. 41, 75
Walker, Robert 33n
Walmsley, Jan 166, 225
war trauma counsellors in Kosovo 93, 95-6
Wärner, S. 211
Weigand, W. 260n
Weizsäcker, Victor von 61 welfare systems
gender dualism 237-8
models and self-employment 41-2, 51 role of biographical methods 19
see also healthcare; social workers Wengraf, T. 196
Whiteford, L. 167
Willis, Paul 158
Winslade, John 172
Winter, R. 30-1
women
self-employment 9, 40, 42-53, 65-7, 82-7
see also gender; male violence Women’s Units 149-50
Woods, P. 269
work traditions 143
workshop experience 31
Wright Mills, C. 23

Z
zero point 241