Index

References to figures appear in italic type. References to endnotes show both the page number and the note number (59n3).

A
academia, emotional support within 17–18, 25 academic voyeurism 106, 165–6 action as a result of research, responsibility for 104–6 activism, young people’s involvement in 109–10 see also social action, youth agency adult control and children’s 146–7 of child prostitutes in Thailand 167–8, 169–70 participation, voice and 97–101 as relational 108–9
and ‘voice’ in practice 102–4 anonymity of participants 36, 85 child prostitution in India 73 child prostitution in Thailand 157–71 absence of guidance and advice on ethics 159 challenges and problems 163–8
academic voyeurism 165–6 agency of children 167–8, 169–70 dealing with unexpected attitudes of children and parents 163, 164, 166–7, 168 distorting problem of prostitution to children 165 drug use 167
identities 165
making interventions and reneging on promises 166 responding to very troubling incidents 163–4, 166 terminology 164
data collection 160–1 denials of prostitution 162, 165, 169–70 findings 161–2
impact on researcher 168–9 inspired by ‘New Social Studies of Childhood’ 158–9 practical realities 159–62 finding a fieldwork site 159–60 working with boys 161 working with very young children 160–1 prosecution of parents 166 sense of filial duty 162, 167, 168
terminology 164
child protection, child’s voice in context of 117–37 component structures and relationships 128–30, 129 conceptual framework 120–8, 131–2 child–practitioner relationship 121, 122, 130 ‘ecosystem’ of relationships 120, 121 national and global policy trends 121, 127–8

B
Balagopalan, S. 43, 44, 46, 57, 64
Bergmark, U. 143
Berriman, L. 107
Bhabha, H. 53, 57
Bhadra, B. 65
BikeStormz 109
Boggis, A. 83, 86
boka child 45, 46, 53
Bourdieu, P. 57, 90, 91
boyd, D. 12, 21
brought self 6
Budhwar Peth, children in red-light area of 64, 65–6 emotional challenges 71–2 mapping tool 73–4, 74
meeting participants 68
self-portrait tool 76–8, 77, 78
C
care, ethic of 142–3, 144, 145
colliding with safeguarding discourse 148–50, 151, 152–4
Carroll, K. 143, 144
INDEX

organisations and state governing bodies 121, 125–6 practitioner and organisation relationship 121, 122–3 practitioner and other agencies in field 121, 123–4 practitioner and state governing bodies 121, 124–5 statutory state services and state/national government 121, 126–7 differences between child participation and child voice 118, 119 interagency work 124
mismatches between policy and practice 131 models of child participation in child protection 130–2 narrow constructions of child’s voice 118–19, 130 political nature of child’s voice 119–20, 130 child protection concerns ‘defensible position’ covering 16–17 as obstacles to research with children 10–11, 13, 15, 25–6 and principles of ‘do no harm’ 10–11, 25 see also safeguarding childhood
adult imaginaries of 57 attitudes in Thailand to 163, 164, 167, 168 colonial notions of 64–5 concept of angels and devils 13, 25 construction in post-colonies 44 in context of Global North 44, 63 essentialism and children at peripheries 43–4 gaze on ‘other’ 56–8
Indian 44–6, 65
sociology of 64–5
North–South tensions over notions of 42–3 protecting dominant constructs of 29, 35 and sexuality 34–6
situated within a ‘walled garden’ 139–40, 151 South Asian 63–4
undermining agentic construct of 35 children’s rights 37, 97, 100–1, 127 child protection concerns outweighing 10–11, 13, 25–6 to participate in research 158–9, 170 Clark, J. 3, 15, 24, 82, 98, 101, 108, 110 clinical supervision 25
co-production methodologies 106–10, 110–11 comfort through touch, providing 143–4 anxiety over 152–3
colliding with discourse of safeguarding 148–50, 152 mechanisms of control 152
from multiple perspectives 151–2 child voice commitment to safeguarding 37–8 compliance 18
confidentiality 52
informed consent 85
listening to voices of young disabled people 83, 85, 87, 89, 92, 93 marginalisation in research 82–3 reflectivity as an embedded research process 86–7
as part of ethical processes 84–6
in research design and method 88–90
storytelling 88–90
taking time out from study 86–7
dissemination of research findings 90, 92, 93
Dogra rule 66
Dolev–Cohen, M. 34, 36
Dominey–Howes, D. 11, 17, 18, 21, 22, 24
drawing exercises 70–1, 70

community, participatory research on see participatory research on community in Suffolk conferences, presenting research at 23, 90, 163 conflict zones, research in see Kashmir, children in Indian-administered consent
concerns over young children’s 145–6 obtaining disabled participants’ 85 obtaining oral 49
selection of participants and 103–4
withdrawal of 86
Coombs, S. 140, 141, 151
CREATE 123
Crossover Youth Practice Model (CYPM) 124
Cube of Hope activity 50, 51

D
data collection
with disabled young people 85 ethics of 34, 36, 106–7, 160–1 online and offline 12–13, 14–15 with very young children 160–1 death
children’s relationship with 139–41 talking to children about 147–8, 151 ‘defensible position’, forming a 16–17 design, reflexivity in choosing research method and 88–90 dhārma 47, 59n3

Dickson-Swift, V. 17, 18, 23, 91, 141, 143, 144, 150 digital methodologies failing to get approval to go ahead 12–13 lurking online 13–14, 15–16, 18, 19, 24, 25–6 offline research methods to contextualise 14–15 ‘participant-driven’ 24 disabled young people 82–95
anonymity of participants 85 disseminating findings 90, 92, 93 emotional work 90–2
informed consent 85, 86
listening to voices of young disabled people 83, 85, 87, 89, 92, 93
marginalisation in research 82–3 reflectivity as an embedded research process 86–7
as part of ethical processes 84–6
in research design and method 88–90
storytelling 88–90
taking time out from study 86–7
dissemination of research findings 90, 92, 93
Dogra rule 66
Dolev–Cohen, M. 34, 36
Dominey–Howes, D. 11, 17, 18, 21, 22, 24
drawing exercises 70–1, 70

173
E

emotional impact of fieldwork on researchers 11, 17, 25, 91, 168–9 support from academia for 17–18, 25 taking a break 22, 73 emotional labour 7, 8
angst around safeguarding practice 152–4 in carrying out sensitive topic research with children 138, 143–5, 148, 150, 151 definitions 144
foregrounding researchers’ own identities 143 research as 90–2
emotions of research participants 91 epistemological reflexivity 54, 58 ethic of care 142–3, 144, 145
colliding with safeguarding discourse 148–50, 151, 152–4 ethical approval, gaining childhood and sexuality research 33, 34–6 considering harm to researcher in 8, 18, 25 moral dissonance between young people’s agency and 104 reflexivity as part of process in 84–6 social media and requirement for 10, 14, 24, 25 ethics
addressing reflexivity as 67–71 of data collection 34, 36, 106–7, 160–1 and impact of research on researchers 168–9 of perceived inaction, navigating 104–6 of reciprocity 54–6
ethnomethodology 50, 59n6

F

family opposition to researchers’ work 64 feminist research 2, 3, 89, 138, 142
field assistants 54
focus groups 14–15
  online research following information in 15–16
Fook, J. 117, 118, 121, 122, 123, 126, 130, 131

G

Gallagher, M. 98, 105, 108
gangs
  local projects to tackle violence 109 research online  see online research with gangs gatekeepers 103, 104
Gillam, L. 84, 85, 87, 90
Graham, A. 96, 168
grey- yard, playground space incorporating a see playground incorporating a graveyard, ‘grooming’ scandal, Oxford 169
Guillemin, M. 84, 85, 87, 90 guilt of researcher 17, 19, 20, 21, 72, 169

H

Hanna, E. 11, 17, 18, 19, 22
Haynes, K. 84, 86, 88
Hill Sabar, children of (re-)imagining and ‘Indian’ childhood 44–6 boka 45, 46, 53
  Cube of Hope activity 50, 51
  ‘double apartheid’ 46 engagement with formal education 45–6 epistemological reflexivity 54, 58
  ethics of reciprocity 54–6
  field assistants 54
  informal education 50
  Kharia language 49, 54, 59n4
  lack of academic research with 52 ‘Life, a Tree’ sensory exploration tool 50–1 reflexive ‘turn’ on research 48–54 relationality of difference 52–4 representation and ‘representability’ 53–4 research as a site for reflexivity 46–8 hosts
    fearing for safety of 67–8 respect and gratitude towards 72
Hyslop, I. 127, 130, 131

I

identities of researcher emotional labour and foregrounding 143 in interactions with respondents 68, 69, 72, 80 multiple selves in research 5–7
  see also positionality
India
  Adivasis (First Inhabitants) 45, 49
  boka child 45, 46, 53
  emergence of sociology of childhood 64–5 indigenous communities 45, 49 categorisation 58n1
  orientalising of ‘other’ childhood 44–6
  National Education Policy 46 sex work in 63, 64, 65–6 see also Budhiwara Peth, children in red-light area of; Hill Sabar, children of; Kashmir, children in Indian-administered Indian Constitution 58n1, 66, 67
  Indian flag drawing 70–1, 70
  Indian Forest (Amendment) Bill 2019 58–9n2 indigenous research
  acknowledging ‘other-ness’ 56–9 advancing phases of enquiry 49–50, 59n5 decolonising 53
  ethics of reciprocity 54–6 links with colonialism 54
  as a site for reflexivity 46–8 see also Hill Sabar, children of
informed consent
  concerns over young children’s 145–6 obtaining disabled participants’ 85
  obtaining oral 49
online abuse, reporting concerns of 16, 17, 34

online research with gangs 11–28 aims of research 11–12
data collection 12
‘defensible position’, forming a 16–17
focus groups 14–15
and future research 24–5
lurking online 13–14, 15–16, 18, 19, 24, 25–6 Plan A 12–13
positionality and trauma 21–2 presenting research at conferences 23 recovering after research 22–3 researcher safe spaces 20, 21 signs of stress 18–20
stress management 21
vicarious trauma 11, 16, 17–18, 23
addressing issues of 24–5 disclosing experiences of 25
recovering from 22–3
witnessing abusive imagery online 11, 16, 17

O

online abuse, reporting concerns of 16, 17, 34

INDEX

selection of participants and 103–4
withdrawal of 86
Ipswich 101–2

see also participatory research on community in Suffolk

J

Johnson, V. 101
juvenile justice system construction of children in 13 research on girls in US 24 youth ‘voice’ in 124

K

Kashmir, children in Indian-administered 66–7 concerns for safety of hosts 67–8 drawing exercise 70–1, 70 family opposition to researcher working in 64 mapping tool and gendered differences 74–6, 75, 76 as an outsider in 67, 69, 72
self-portrait tool 78–9, 79
taking a break from 72–3 Kedell, E. 127, 130, 131
Kharia language 49, 54, 59n4

L

La Fontaine, J. 165
Laerke, A. 169
‘Life, a Tree’ sensory exploration tool 50–1 Lundy, L. 99, 100, 107, 110
lurking online 13–14, 15–16, 18, 19, 24, 25–6
Lyttle Storrod, M. 12, 24

M

macro systems 128, 129
mapping tool 73–6, 74, 75, 76, 80 mental health of researchers 168–9 ethics committees and neglect of 8, 18, 25 taking a break to protect 22, 73
meso systems 128, 129
messiness of doing research 92–3, 110
methodology
co-production 106–10, 110–11 reflexivity about 56–8, 88–90 sensitive research 141–5
see also digital methodologies micro systems 128, 129
Montgomery, H. 161, 163, 164

N

nested systems theory 128
Nieuwenhuys, O. 65
Nordic Barnahus Model 124

O

online abuse, reporting concerns of 16, 17, 34

P

parents, dealing with unexpected attitudes of 163, 164, 167, 168 participation in research, children and young people’s child protection issues limiting 13, 15, 25–6 children as researchers 100 children’s right to 158–9, 170 criticisms and concerns 98, 99–100, 105, 110 defining participation 98–9 differences between child voice and child participation 118, 119 influence of human rights movement on 127–8 models of practice 99–100, 100–1 popularity of practice tools and guides 119 and principles of ‘do no harm’ 10–11, 25 participatory research on community in Suffolk 101–11 agency and ‘voice’ in practice 102–4 agency, voice and participation 97–101
children as researchers 100
co-production methodologies 106–10, 110–11 exploring young people’s perceptions 101–2 issues over consent 103–4 navigating ethics of perceived inaction 104–6 participation as relational 106–10
workshop of participatory activities 107

175 personal theory of action 47–8 playground incorporating a graveyard. 138–56
children’s relationship with death 139–41 ethic of care colliding with safeguarding discourse 148–50, 151, 152–4 issues around informed consent 145–6 losing and regaining control over power balance 146–7
methodology 141–5
talking about death 147–8, 151 police
children drawing themselves as officers 77, 77
fear of 76
positionality 2
and adult–child power relationship 68 co–production methodologies and 109 and previous experience 142–3, 145, 149 researching with Sabar 49, 52 researching with young disabled people 86, 87
trauma and 21–2
‘Post–Modern Anthropologist’ 157
postcolonial research
acknowledging ‘other–ness’ 56–8 constructions of ‘other’ childhoods 44–6
as a site for reflexivity 46–8 power
co–production and shared 108 losing and regaining control over balance of 146–7
negotiations of 49
reciprocity to diminish disparities of 54–6 relationship between adult and child in research 68
young people navigating dynamics of 105 prison research 20
promises, breaking 166
prostitution
in India 64, 65–6
child prostitution 73
see also child prostitution in Thailand publishing of research, dilemma over 90, 92, 93

R
reciprocity, ethics of 54–6 reflexivity 1, 3–4
about methodology in postcolonial
research 56–8
in adopting co–production methodologies 109, 110
as an embedded research process 86–7 as ethics 67–71
as part of ethical processes 84–6
reflexive ‘turn’ on research 48–54 research as a site for 46–8
in research design and method 88–90
Reinharz, S. 5–6
respect for research communities, demonstrating 69, 72
Richards, S. 3, 15, 24, 30, 82, 83, 98, 101, 104, 108
S
safe spaces, researcher 20, 21 safeguarding discourse, colliding with ethics of care 148–50, 151, 152–4 see also child protection, child’s voice in context of; child protection concerns safety
participants’ feelings of 68, 71, 75 of researcher 64, 72
and hosts 67–8
Said, E.W. 46, 54
self–care practices 73, 91–2
self–portrait tool 76–9, 77, 78
self–reflexivity 48–9, 68 selves in research, multiple 5–7 sex workers
in India 64, 65–6
child 73
see also child prostitution in Thailand sexting, children and adolescents 30–4
data collection 33, 34
discussions with parents 33–4, 36 gaining ethical approval to study sexuality and 33, 34–6
inside and outside romantic relationships 35 learning about sexuality 29–30 prevalence 31
risks 32
Sinha, P. 48
situational self 6
social action, reciprocity and 56 social action, youth 96–116
agency and ‘voice’ in practice 102–4 agency, voice and participation 97–101
children as researchers 100
co–production methodologies 106–10, 110–11
exploring young people’s perceptions 101–2
issues over consent 103–4 navigating ethics of perceived inaction 104–6
participation as relational 106–10 responsibility to rally for action on research 106
workshop of participatory activities 107
social media abusive images and videos 11, 16, 17 concerns over following young people on 12–13
lurking on 13–14, 15–16, 18, 19, 24, 25–6 tours with research participants 24
INDEX

training for practitioners in issues on 22–3 see also online research with gangs
storytelling 88–90
stress management 21
stress, signs of 18–20
supervision of sensitive research 24–5
‘Swerve Sunday’ 109

T
Thailand, child research in see child prostitution in Thailand time out from research, taking 86–7 to protect mental health 22, 73 tools of research with children
Cube of Hope activity 50, 51
drawing exercises 70–1, 70
‘Life, a Tree’ sensory exploration tool 50–1 practice tools for children’s participation 119
in sensitive contexts 73–9, 79–80
mapping tool 73–6, 74, 75, 76, 80
self-portrait tool 76–9, 77, 78
touch, providing comfort through 143–4 anxiety over 152–3
colliding with discourse of
safeguarding 148–50, 152
mechanisms of control 152
from multiple perspectives 151–2 trauma 168–9
as ‘contagious’ 25
eyarly signs of 18–20
positionality and 21–2
recovering from 22–3
see also vicarious trauma Trento, J.C. 142
trust of participants gaining 70–1, 91, 122, 153
losing 166
Tyrrell, K. 101

U
United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) 13, 97, 100, 110, 127

V
vicarious trauma 11, 16, 17–18, 23
addressing issues of 24–5 disclosing experiences of 25
recovering from 22–3
voices of children and young people 7–8 agency and ‘voice’ in practice 102–4 agency, participation and 97–101
child protection issues limiting 10–11, 13, 15, 25–6 differences between child participation
and 118, 119
ethical frameworks marginalising 33, 35, 37 inclusion of disabled children’s voices 83, 85, 87, 89, 92, 93 in Indian sociological imagination 64–5 in South Asia 63
see also child protection, child’s voice in context of Volunteering Matters 109 vulnerability of children and implications for research 1, 2–3, 36–7, 141

W
Wacquant, L. 90, 91
Widman, L. 33
Winter, K. 122, 123
Women Against Sexual Exploitation and Violence Speak Up (WASSUP) 109 word clouds 18–19, 19
workshops, collaborative 107
Wright, E.M. 124

Y
You Tube 11, 15–16