JIGSAW CITIES

Big places, small spaces

Anne Power and John Houghton
Contents

List of tables, figures and photographs vii
Preface xi

one Introducing Jigsaw cities

- Our urban future 1
- What is a jigsaw city? 2
- Britain’s uniquely damaged urban environment 3
- A world of sprawling cities 5
- Pieces of the jigsaw – communities or Big Brother? 6
- Neighbourhoods are the building blocks of cities 7
- Big cities need small spaces 9
- Our plan 10

Part I: How did we get here?

two Jigsaws and Lego sets

- The first urban explosion 13
- Reform-minded leaders 16
- Five per cent philanthropy 19
- A vicious cycle of displacement 21
- Seeds of neighbourhood management 22
- Prince Albert’s Commission and by-law terraces 23
- Model villages 26
- Chocolate conscience 27
- Birmingham – the city of a thousand trades 29
- Chamberlain’s brief revolution 31
- Birmingham in Berlin 34

three Breaking up the jigsaw

- Garden cities and the urban exodus 37
- Homes fit for heroes 41
- Birth of the council estate 43
- Abandoning the terraces to their fate 46
- Management problems on the new estates 47
- Suburbs take over 48
- Harsh monotony 49
- A changing urban world 50
- Birmingham as builder 50
- Gloomy cities 52

---

Unauthenticated | Downloaded 08/02/24 03:43 AM UTC
Jigsaw cities

four  Building the New Jerusalem – vision and reality
- New visions
- New Towns
- ‘People’s house’
- Spirit of giant-size Lego sets
- ‘Twilight zones’
- Build, build, build
- Fall of high-rise
- Birmingham builds big
- Reach for the sky
- High-rise corruption in green fields
- High-rise goes wrong
- End of mass housing

five  Cities bounce back – piecing communities together again
- Recycling, not clearing
  ‣ Gentrification – the inevitable price of success
  ‣ Communities not estates
  ‣ Homelessness and council housing
- Rolling back the state
  ‣ An Englishman’s home is his castle
  ‣ Community self-help wins brownie points
  ‣ Radical urban renewal
  ‣ Balloting tenants
  ‣ Final break-up?
  ‣ New creed
- A new dawn under New Labour?
  ‣ Birmingham’s about-face
  ‣ Birmingham’s big gamble
  ‣ Why the ‘No’ vote?
  ‣ A city in turmoil
  ‣ Lessons from Birmingham?

Part 2: Where are we now?

six  Britain’s cities today: a progress report
- Overgrown and out of love
- Commuter hinterland
- Comeback cities
- A more sustainable future?
- Growth is good
- London’s under-supply and unaffordability
- Building for sale or rent?

iv
seven Britain’s cities of yesterday and tomorrow

- Growing gap within cities
- North and Midlands build too much
- Housing Market Renewal
- North–South divide
- Rediscovering our roots
- A more sustainable North?
- Why demolition again?
- A surprising turnaround
- A changing environment
- An unsustainable Communities Plan?
- Birmingham – why big is not best
- Cities evolve

Part 3: Where do we go from here?

eight Smart cities work

- Smart growth and recycling cities
  - Smart growth in practice
  - Fragmented spaces
  - Will smart growth help real problems?
  - Strong city centres
  - Density follows smart urban growth
  - Clustering and blending in city centres
- Neighbourhood renewal and local management
  - Anchoring action in neighbourhoods
  - Anti-social behaviour and attitude – tackling the antecedents of crime
  - Re-peopling streets and spaces
  - Birmingham’s deprived neighbourhoods, renewal and smart growth nine  Future cities: piecing the jigsaw together  187
  - Sustainable cities  187
    - Planning cities for living  188
    - Public spaces as air-fresheners and green fingers  190
    - Car-tamed cities  191
  - Mixed communities as social engines  194
    - Parallel lives  195
    - Breaking down barriers  196
    - Opening up estates  196
    - Widening options, narrowing damage  199
    - Renting and owning  201
    - Who can afford city living?  202
    - Existing communities as mixed communities  203
  - Changing ways of running cities  203
    - New urban economy  205
    - New ways of organising  206
    - Steering not rowing  209
    - Big problems, small solutions – Birmingham’s unsolved jigsaw puzzle  210
    - Putting communities into the Sustainable Communities Plan  212

Afterword: the urban jungle or urban jigsaw?  215
Notes and references  217
Bibliography  241
Index  255
List of tables, figures and photographs

Tables

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Table</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1</td>
<td>Population growth (1000s) in England and Wales and 12 cities and towns (1801-51)</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Distribution of housing stock by tenure (1914-38)</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.1</td>
<td>Number of local authority dwellings built as houses, flats and maisonettes (1000s) in five-year periods (1946-84)</td>
<td>67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2</td>
<td>Percentage of total council housing stock in major cities built as high-rise by 1972</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>Elements of the repairs backlog</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Council homes considered low demand in Birmingham by proposed transfer area</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Birmingham's stock transfer referendum ballot result</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Average densities of housing developments over time</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>The five key delivery areas in the Sustainable Communities Plan</td>
<td>111</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.6</td>
<td>Population changes in cities and metropolitan conurbations (1991-2001)</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.7</td>
<td>Growing concentrations of minority ethnic groups in areas of existing minority settlement (%)</td>
<td>131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.8</td>
<td>Different types of new homes in the South East (% of total)</td>
<td>132</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.1</td>
<td>Daily use of different modes of transport</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Figures

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Figure</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Ebenezer Howard's three magnets</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Ebenezer Howard's planning principles for a Garden City</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>House building: permanent dwellings completed, by tenure (UK, historical calendar year series)</td>
<td>80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Employment status of social tenants in 1981 and 2003</td>
<td>84</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Right to Buy sales of local authority stock in England (1979-2004)</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Transfer of local authority stock in England (1979-2004)</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>Economic and health status of council tenants in Birmingham (2001)</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.1</td>
<td>Map of the four Growth Areas</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.2</td>
<td>Population turnaround in London compared with other cities (1981-2001)</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.3</td>
<td>House price growth has been much faster than earnings growth</td>
<td>116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.4</td>
<td>Thames Gateway map</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.5</td>
<td>Population change rates in cities</td>
<td>129</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
6.6 Available brownfield (previously developed) land, by type and region (England) (2004) 133
7.1 Population loss in six northern urban areas (1991-98) 136
7.2 Cycle of decline 137
7.3 Household growth and new building in different regions 139
7.4 Housing Market Renewal Pathfinders 141
7.5 Economic performance of leading European regions (GDP per capita, Euros) 144
7.6 Economic performance of leading European cities (GDP per capita, Euros) (2001) 144
7.7 Cycle of recovery 157
8.1 Population needed to support local facilities at different scales 166
8.2 Projected number and type of households in England (1991-2026) 170
8.3 Essential components of neighbourhood management 178
8.4 Manchester’s strong urban pattern evolving between 1774 and 1824 182
8.5 Manchester’s spread and decline – maps showing the appearance of major holes in the urban fabric as the city spread out in the 20th century 183
9.1 Composition of income groups by tenure (2001-02) 197
9.2 Distribution of income groups in social rented housing in four European countries 198
9.3 Mean household size (1971-2002) 200
9.4 Essential steps in developing Local Improvement Areas and outcomes 204
9.5 New urban economy – examples of job-intensive, small-scale, locally based, non-standard, adaptable activities 207
9.6 Transforming big places through small spaces – summarising the five elements of jigsaw cities 213

Photographs

Chapter Two

Slum Court in London’s East End 15
Source: NFHA, National Federation of Housing Associations jubilee 1935-1985: The jubilee album
© Peter Jones, 1985

New Lanark 17
Source: New Lanark Conservation Trust (www.newlanark.org)

Model dwellings 20
Source: London County Council, London Housing, 1937

LCC tenements, Boundary Street 23
Source: London County Council, London Housing, 1937
List of tables, figures and photographs

The Rest House, Bournville Village Green 27
Source: Marketing Birmingham

New Earswick, Rowntree garden estate in York – early 1900s 28
Source: Peter Hall, Cities of tomorrow, 1988

Crowded slums in early 20th-century Birmingham 29
Source: Birmingham Lives (the Carl Chinn Archive)

Birmingham’s grand Victorian council house 31
Source: Marketing Birmingham

Chapter Three
Letchworth, original garden city 38
Source: Peter Hall, Cities of tomorrow, 1988

Famous WWI poster 41
Source: NFHA, National Federation of Housing Associations jubilee 1935-1985: The jubilee album © Peter Jones, 1985

Beacontree – Neasham Road, Lodge Avenue 42
Source: London County Council, London Housing, 1937

1930s Balcony blocks: White City site 44
Source: London County Council, London Housing, 1937; E.P. Wheeler, Architect to the Council

Chapter Four
Building emergency prefabs, after the Second World War 56
Source: NFHA, National Federation of Housing Associations jubilee 1935-1985: The jubilee album © Peter Jones, 1985

Adding bathrooms to Victorian terraces, c1950s 58
Source: NFHA, National Federation of Housing Associations jubilee 1935-1985: The jubilee album © Peter Jones, 1985

High-rise in green fields 62
Source: NFHA, National Federation of Housing Associations jubilee 1935-1985: The jubilee album © Peter Jones, 1985

Difficult to manage estates 69
Source: Department of the Environment
Stephenson Tower, Birmingham city centre  73
Source: Birmingham City Council/LSE Housing

Castle Vale Estate built on Castle Bromwich site on the former edge of the city  74
Source: Birmingham City Council/LSE Housing

Optima Sentinels, with new secure entrances  78
Source: Optima, photograph by Adrian Holden

Chapter Seven

Edge Lane, Liverpool  145
Source: Photograph by Jonathan Brown

Hertford Road, Liverpool  146
Source: Photograph by Jonathan Brown

Stonebuilt terraced housing in Backup, East Lancashire  148
Source: Photograph by Kathy Fishwick

Restored houses in Backup, East Lancashire  150
Source: Photograph by Kathy Fishwick

The Water’s Edge, Brindleyplace  155
Source: Argent Estates © Brindleyplace

Welsh House Farm Estate, Birmingham  159
Source: Birmingham City Council/LSE Housing

Chapter Eight

Urban Splash, Britannia Mills, Castlefield  168
Source: Urban Splash, photograph by Richard Cooper